We are pleased to invite doctoral students, master's students and students from postgraduate courses to submit papers to Doctoral Research Conference held jointly by the Interfaculty Department of Foreign Languages, Saint Hedwig the Queen Foundation for the Pontifical University of John Paul II in Krakow and Doctoral Students' Union.

Doctoral Research Conference Share and Inspire

Confidence and Beauty in Communication

In previous years this event was held only for the participants of Academic English programmes.

This year our aim is to provide a diverse and collaborative space for students from other Polish universities and from universities abroad to share their academic experience, research findings and expertise in the areas of history, philosophy, social science and theology.

We warmly welcome all interdisciplinary perspectives and critical reflections.

The conference includes 15-minute paper presentations in parallel sessions and a poster exhibition.

The conference attendees are required to register and submit an abstract of 100-250 words for consideration by the Conference Editorial Board.

Due date for applications is 30th March.

For online registration and abstract submission follow the link: DRC.edu.pl

There is no registration fee. The organizers cover the cost of lunch and refreshments.

Conference contributions may be published in accredited academic journals after the consideration by the Conference Editorial Board. The Board will focus on academic excellence and a good command of written English.

For further information, contact: doctoral.conference@upjp2.edu.pl

We look forward to welcome you in May!
