I am very sad to hear about the sudden demise of. Rev. Prof. Dr. Hab. Michael Drozd, the Dean of Department of Human Sciences at the Pontifical University of John Paul 2 at Krakow.

At the Conference of Media Ethics, I came to know more about his loving friendship, simplicity and sincerity. His knowledge, organizing capacity and openness were attractive features in the great personality of this dedicated and hardworking priest.

It is indeed a great loss for the Pontifical University of John Paul 2 at Krakow in particular and for the whole Catholic Church in Poland.

My heartfelt condolences to the faculty concerned and to all of his dear and near ones!

I am praying for him that the Good Lord may bless him with the eternal reward.

Prof. Dr. Gregory Arby

Dean of Theology

St. Joseph's Pontifical Institute of Theology and philosophy

Aluva, Kerala India.
